CHULA VISTA, CALIFORNIA, USA

ANNUAL MEETING WEBSITE

Join us May 27–29, 2026, for the Society for Scholarly Publishing's 48th Annual Meeting

*Gonna be a twister to blow everything down,
That ain't got the faith to stand its ground.*
– BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN, "THE PROMISED LAND"

These words are apropos to the current state of scholarly publishing. With cuts to US funding in medical and scientific research; distrust in academia, once-revered institutions, and expertise in general; shrinking academic library budgets; huge growth in proposals and publications; the effects of AI on content creation; continuing strains on the peer review process; and an uncertain (to put it mildly) political environment, our industry is in the midst of serious upheaval.

What can we do as a community in these unsettled times? How can we adhere to our core values while adapting to the ever-changing landscape? There are many unknowns, but one thing we do know is that by publishing and disseminating critical information and spreading knowledge, we serve an essential function to humanity at large.

The 2026 SSP Annual Meeting invites us to navigate a paradox: how to adapt and innovate in turbulent times while staying true to the mission of integrity at the heart of scholarly communication. What are the practical effects on the work that we do? Let's gather to discuss the tactics and strategies needed to face these challenges successfully.

All individual members and staff of organizational members will receive the member discount to attend the Annual Meeting.

Code of Conduct

The Society for Scholarly Publishing (SSP) is a community-run organization committed to diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility. This includes providing a safe, welcoming, and productive environment that fosters open dialogue and the free expression of ideas, free of harassment, discrimination, and hostile conduct, at SSP meetings and events, whether held in person or in a virtual format. We have a shared responsibility for creating and maintaining that environment for the benefit of all.

SSP is committed to supporting equitable opportunities and respectful treatment for all participants in our activities, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, physical or mental ability, disability, age, physical appearance, race, ethnicity, religion, political affiliation, nationality, or any other protected characteristic. We seek to be a welcoming community in which you can consider and debate a range of relevant viewpoints respectfully and inclusively. View the full policy on SSP's website.

Attend the SSP 48th Annual Meeting

SSP's meeting is the premier multidisciplinary education event in scholarly publishing. Engage with experts and thought leaders at this three-day education and networking event!

- Twenty-three educational sessions over two days, led by top industry experts, complement three plenary sessions
- The SSP Previews session with lightning-round presentations of new technologies and products
- Industry breakout sessions with more opportunities to meet and learn
- Poster sessions highlighting case studies and best practices in publishing

Why Attend?

Our 48th Annual Meeting is more than a conference—it is where our community gathers to examine difficult questions, share practical solutions, and reaffirm the role of scholarly communication in serving humanity. We look forward to welcoming you to Chula Vista for an engaging and forward-looking event.

Who Should Attend?

SSP Annual Meeting attendees include professionals from various sectors of scholarly publishing, including publishers, technology providers, scholars, librarians, database producers, funders, and other stakeholders.

General Information

Accessibility

If you have special needs, please contact us at info@sspnet.org or call +1-856-439-1385. We will work to accommodate attendees who require added assistance.

Consent to Use of Photographic Images and Recordings

Registration and attendance at, or participation in, SSP meetings and events constitutes an agreement by the registrant for SSP to use and distribute the registrant's or attendee's image, likeness, public text comments, and voice recorded in any format at the event without payment or any other consideration to SSP. SSP may use photographic, audio, or video recordings for educational/informational presentations and promotional materials for SSP in any format. This includes screen captures, session recordings, and public text comments. SSP agrees not to sell, transfer, or otherwise authorize the rights of the registrant's image or likeness to any other entity.

Keynote Speaker

Wednesday, May 27

Chinasa T. Okolo, Ph.D.

Founder of Technecultura; Policy Specialist at the United Nations Office for Digital and Emerging Technologies (ODET)

Dr. Chinasa T. Okolo has been recognized as one of the world's most influential people in AI by TIME, honored in the inaugural Forbes "30 Under 30" AI list, and advises numerous multilateral institutions, national governments, corporations, and nonprofits. Her research focuses on AI governance and safety for the Global Majority, datafication and algorithmic marginalization, and the geopolitical impacts of AI. She is a former Fellow at the Brookings Institution and has worked in research-based roles at Apple and Microsoft. Her research has been widely covered by media outlets and published in top-tier venues in human-computer interaction and sociotechnical computing. Learn more about Dr. Chinasa T. Okolo at www.chinasatokolo.com.

Dr. Okolo's keynote will examine the landscape of AI innovation beyond the dominant axis, with particular attention to grassroots efforts in Global Majority countries focused on cultural preservation, linguistic expansion, and context-specific AI applications. These initiatives, many operating with minimal institutional resources and under pressing socioeconomic conditions, represent not a deficit of capacity but an instructive model of what it means to develop technology for communities rather than at them.

Featured Plenaries

Thursday, May 28

Moderated Discussion: Navigating the Paradox: Adaptation, Innovation, and Collaboration in 2026

This moderated panel will bring together senior leaders in scholarly communications to explore critical challenges and opportunities in 2026. Topics addressed will include:

- Developing communities and mentorship
- Research assessment and incentives.
- Growing trust and access to research
- The Future of OA
- The Impact of AI on scholarly communications

Friday, May 29

Previews Session

These lightning-round presentations showcase practical solutions addressing today's most pressing publishing challenges. Join us for rapid-fire insights into solutions that are working now—designed to enhance efficiency, protect integrity, and strengthen partnerships across the scholarly publishing ecosystem. Attendees will vote on which solution they find most effective.

AI Solutions Round Robin

Join us Friday morning for an engaging and interactive AI Solutions Round Robin. This session offers a unique opportunity to explore the latest advancements in AI technology tailored to the needs of scholarly publishers. Participants will rotate through sponsor-hosted tables, where industry-leading experts will showcase cutting-edge AI solutions, share insights about their services, and discuss real-world applications.

Each table offers an intimate setting for in-depth conversations, enabling attendees to ask questions, exchange ideas, and gain practical knowledge on how AI can enhance workflows, improve discoverability, and transform the publishing landscape. Connect with peers and thought leaders as you learn about the latest AI innovations. Prepare to walk away with actionable ideas and valuable connections that will help you navigate the evolving intersection of AI and scholarly publishing.

Registration Information

Please take a moment to review the following registration policies and procedures to avoid any delays in your registration for the 2026 Annual Meeting.

Registration Fees

Registration for the SSP Annual Meeting includes all educational sessions, Industry Breakout sessions, entry to the Exhibitors Marketplace, breakfast and lunch on Thursday, breakfast on Friday, and receptions on Wednesday and Thursday. One-day registrants may attend the events as mentioned for that day only.

Registration fees are based on your SSP membership status. Your membership must be current to receive discounted member registration rates. You may join or renew immediately before registering for the meeting. Students must include a copy of their student identification with their registration form to receive the student registration rate. If you are under 18, a parent must sign the parent/guardian consent on the registration form.

Membership

Not an SSP member? Why wait? Join SSP now and save over $120 on your registration fees for the Annual Meeting. Go to the SSP website at www.sspnet.org and join over 1,100 industry professionals who have made SSP the premier organization for those in the scholarly communication field. Already a member but haven't renewed? You can join or renew your membership when you register for the meeting.

Payment

Payment in full must be submitted at the time you register. Fees may be paid in US dollars (payable to SSP) by check, ACH, American Express, VISA, Discover, or MasterCard. Registrations received after Friday, May 22, 2026, will be processed on-site.

Methods of Registration

Please choose only one of the following methods to register for the 48th SSP Annual Meeting:

- ONLINE: Register online at www.sspnet.org.
- BY MAIL: Complete one form per registrant. Send your completed registration form with payment to:
SSP
1120 Route 73, Suite 200
Mount Laurel, NJ 08054
- ON-SITE: If you are unable to register before the May 22, 2026 deadline, you may register on-site at the Registration Desk.
- TELEPHONE: Registrations are not accepted over the telephone.

Confirmation

Registration confirmation will be sent to all registrants within five business days. If you do not receive confirmation, call Member Services at 856-439-1385.

Cancellation and Refund Policy

- Cancellations received in writing two weeks (May 13, 2026) or more before the event will be issued a refund less a $50 processing fee.
- No refunds will be processed for cancellations less than two weeks before the event. SSP encourages you to send a substitute in your place if you cannot attend.

Cancellation or Format Change by SSP

SSP reserves the right to cancel any program or session or change the meeting format to virtual. In the event of cancellation, SSP will refund registration fees but is not responsible for any costs, damages, or other expenses, including and without limitation, transportation or hotel costs incurred by the registrant. Speakers are subject to change without notice. If the format changes to virtual only, in-person attendees will be refunded the difference in the registration rate, or they can cancel their registration less a $50 processing fee.

Badge and Meeting Registration Materials

Attendees can pick up their badges and registration materials at the Registration Desk. At that time, you will receive valuable information about your Annual Meeting participation, including the pocket schedule containing an Exhibitors Marketplace guide, meeting app information, and other event information.

Registration Information

Make Your Hotel Reservations Today

All Annual Meeting activities will be held at the Gaylord Pacific Resort & Convention Center, 1000 H Street, Chula Vista, California 91910, USA. SSP has secured a group rate of $289 for a single/double. The cut-off date for reservations is May 5, 2026. Cancellations made within 72 hours of arrival will forfeit one night's room and tax. For reservations, please visit the hotel website or call +1 (619) 310-9800 and reference SSP. If you have any questions regarding the room block and/or rates, please reach out to our Annual Meeting Manager, Tracy Mitchell.

Chula Vista is the second-largest city in the San Diego metropolitan area, located between the San Diego Bay and the coastal mountain foothills. Incorporated in 1911, the city's name comes from the Spanish for "Beautiful View." It is the second-largest city in San Diego County, with a population of 276,000.

Surrounded by over 52 square miles of coastal landscape, canyons, rolling hills, mountains, and parks, with miles of bicycling, hiking, and walking trails, Chula Vista is home to the Chula Vista Elite Athlete Training Center, Sesame Place San Diego, North Island Credit Union Amphitheatre, Chula Vista Marina, and the Living Coast Discovery Center.

The downtown area features major retailers, dining, movie theaters, and more than 100 specialty shops. Third Avenue Village, considered the cultural center of the city, features historic buildings, unique shops, a vibrant restaurant, brewery, and coffee shop scene, and seasonal events.

The Gaylord Pacific Resort & Convention Center is about 15 minutes from downtown San Diego. The hotel is about 20 minutes from Chula Vista's Otay Ranch Town Center—an exciting outdoor shopping, dining, and entertainment destination with a variety of amenities, including a library, outdoor cafes, food pavilion, fireplace, and play fountain.
